

NATALIE L. PASKIEWICZ, ESQ.

PROFILE

Natalie Paskiewicz is a Florida Supreme Court Certified Circuit Civil Mediator. Since starting her practice in 2016, Ms. Paskiewicz has conducted over 1000 mediations. She has practiced throughout the entire state of Florida in civil litigation matters arising from premises liability, trucking transportation, property damage, automobile negligence, construction defects, products liability, and many areas in which she now mediates.

Ms. Paskiewicz is also a Florida qualified Arbitrator. She has conducted several binding and non-binding arbitrations as the sole arbitrator, and serves as an arbitrator for the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and the American Health Lawyers Association (AHLA). She was recently welcomed to the Conflict Prevention and Resolution (CPR) panel of distinguished neutrals.

Ms. Paskiewicz obtained her J.D. from Stetson University College of Law. She gained experience in-house with Minor League Baseball, previously headquartered in St. Petersburg, FL. She also worked for well-known TV personality, Judge Judy, and clerked for a Sixth Judicial Circuit Judge. Although Ms. Paskiewicz is based in the Tampa Bay area, she conducts mediations largely via zoom throughout the entire state of Florida.
